Topics Discussed:

Description part- This project in total will solve three main problems this business is facing right now , it will solve the communication problems with workers at every level with a hierarchical model and giving every worker his rights to communicate even with the owner of the business ,so it will cut the middle man work.
It will provide financial information about every user(worker) so this way It will be easier for the managers to focus on real and direct information so they know where work is not being done well, and will do fix reports for every financial situation of the hotel.
This application will serve online so the users will have it easier and faster to have a better service for the hotel and a better experience for the clients.

we assigned different tasks to each member of the group.
